

Opioid Settlement Consulting Services

Over $50 billion has been awarded to states through legal agreements intended to address the devastating impact of the opioid epidemic.

As our nation continues to grapple with the opioid crisis, the solution demands comprehensive and innovative strategies, collaborative efforts, and effective allocation of resources.

Settlement funds offer an unprecedented opportunity for states and localities to strengthen their response to the opioid crisis. Jurisdictions are under pressure to spend funds quickly and judiciously amidst a genuine crisis and intense public scrutiny. Public Consulting Group (PCG) can directly support jurisdictions in tackling the operational challenges presented by this unique opportunity.

Why PCG

For over 35 years, PCG has been helping state and local jurisdictions with operational, financial, and strategic support related to substance use disorder services. Our team of subject matter experts can help you strategically and efficiently use opioid settlement funds to make a meaningful difference in the lives of individuals, families, and communities for a better tomorrow.
